

Dalgona White Russian

Serves: 1 drink

Total Time: 5 minutes

- 1 tbsp hot water
- 1 tbsp instant coffee powder
- 1 tbsp honey or granulated sugar (see note)
- 2 ounces (1/4 cup) vodka
- 1 - 1 & 1/2 ounces (2-3 tablespoons) Kahlua
- 1-2 ounces (2-4 tablespoons) whole milk or nut milk
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract

Combine the hot water, instant coffee, and honey in a bowl. Using an electric mixer, whip until fluffy and light, 2-3 minutes. Alternately, you can do this with a hand frother too.

Fill a glass with ice. Add the vodka, Kahlua, and a splash of vanilla. Stir. Pour the milk over and stir to combine. Spoon the whipped coffee overtop. Gently stir and enjoy!

Chef's Note:

I love the flavor of honey and it works well, but sugar does whip up prettier and smoother.
